DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

I. EDUCATION & TRAINING

I earned my Masters of Arts Degree (2001) in Behavioral Science from Martin University. My disciplines included Clinical Mental Health Counseling, Marriage and Family Counseling, and Pastoral Counseling. I am a Licensed Mental Health Counselor (LMHC) approved by the Behavior Health and Human Services Licensing Board of Indiana, and a Licensed Clinical Addictions Counselor (LCAC) approved by the Behavioral Health and Human Services Licensing Board of Indiana. I hold certification of completion in Cognitive Behavioral therapy (CBT) Motivational Interviewing (MI) Dialectical Behavioral Therapy (DBT) and have had additional training in Trauma related treatment. I have worked in several different settings providing services to individuals, young adults, couples and families.

II. Counseling Orientation and Services

The theoretical approach I use most often involves a holistic framework integrating techniques involving Whole Person Wellness and Balance; exploring with clients how they are well rounded individuals and balancing emotional, spiritual, mental, physical, family and self-care. I believe through therapy the client and therapist are partners working together in order to meet the client's need and reach the treatment goals. It is important for client and therapist to build a working relationship that facilitates an open, trusting and nonjudgmental environment in order for supportive work to be done.

Family Counseling Associates is a Christ-centered professional counseling group. As a member of FCA and a professional it is my intention to meet my clients where they are without in their spiritual journey and will promote client in exploring how their own faith and spirituality is integrated into the counseling experience. My counseling services address concerns or issues including, but not limited to:

- Depression and anxiety
- Trauma Issues, Grief, and Loss
- Shame, Guilt, Low self-esteem, self-image
- Couples and Family concerns
- Substance and Addiction Issues
